

my COLORS

When I am sleepless all the night
Then I am black and white
When I am watching falling stars
Then I am blue inside
I'm getting rosy when I laugh
And crimson when I'm shy
I am lilac when I am touched
Gray when I'm fragile
I am sea-green when I'm relaxed
Deep brown when I am afraid
I am white when I am sad
Black when I'm constrained
I am wine-colored in my dance
And silver in my song
I am green when day is still Dove-colored when I'm alone
When I feel tenderness inside
I'm in the golden cloud
When you are looking in my eyes
Then I am multicolored.
