

THIS ONE'S FOR YOU

*I pray that the sun will always be on your face
That you will rise in the morning looking forward to the day
Rather than dreading the reaching shadows*

*I pray that fear and uncertainty will falter at your feet
And courage and faith will lead you on to higher ground
Far from the valley below*

*I pray that when opportunity knocks, you take it willingly
Rather than doubting your good fortune
You are worthy of merit in spite of your self doubt*

*I pray that happiness will flood your innermost being
Even on the darkest days when it seems everyone is in mourning
Your joy and happiness is the antidote for a suffering world*

*I pray that when troubles loom, you put your shoulder to the wheel
Rather than leaving the burden for someone else
It could be your extra effort that turns the tide*

*I pray that whatever you set out to accomplish is completed
Even when the end result isn't exactly what you had hoped for Sometimes God's blessings are small but they are always blessings*

*But above all, I pray that you accept the image in the mirror
Even though it is faulty and not what you would like to see
The mirror shows not only your weaknesses but also your strengths*

That is my prayer for you
